

MATRON OF ESSEX COURT GONE; MEN OFFICERS WARY

Fearsome of Female Prisoners, They're Studying Methods of Handling Them.

"What are we going to do with the women?" ask the court attendants at Essex Market Court.

Mrs. Katharine Meyer, matron of the court, who is the original pacifier of womanhood that comes before the east side bar of justice, has received orders to leave the court for six weeks, beginning July 1, and take the place of various matrons who are on vacation.
Meanwhile, Essex Market Court, to which scores of women come during the summer months, will be without a matron, and the male attendants will be forced to care for the female prisoners.
The fact that yesterday morning a woman fainted and required the office of the matron for half an hour did little to encourage the attendants, who feel that they have enough trouble keeping in check the turbulent male aliens without the added difficulty of caring for the temperamental and less easily managed women.

THOUSANDS ARE DELAYED BY JERSEY TUBE TIE-UP

Traffic Stalled Clear to Newark When Coupling Parts Near Jersey City Station.

Thousands of workers from New Jersey points were delayed about twenty minutes this morning by a tie-up of the Cortlandt Tube of the Hudson tunnels. Shortly before 8 o'clock a work train pulled out of the Exchange Place Station bound toward Manhattan. Almost as soon as it got under way a coupling parted and the train was stalled by the automatic air control.
The train was brought to a halt and an emergency crew installed a new coupling.

The line was blocked clear back to Newark. The station platforms were crowded with passengers in ignorance of the delay. When traffic was resumed the trains were jammed so that it was almost impossible to collect tickets.

According to officials of the company no trains were held under the river while repairs were being made. The preceding passenger train had a full five-minute lead and all waiting was on the surface station platforms.

EASIER TO DODGE SHELLS THAN DRIVE IN FIFTH AVE.

So Says Former War Chauffeur.
With 77th Division, Now Seeking Job Here.

Driving an automobile in Fifth Avenue and Broadway is nervous work compared to driving munitions trucks and lorries through shell swept roads in France, according to an applicant for a job at the Re-employment Bureau for New York City for Soldiers, Sailors and Marines at No. 505 Pearl Street.

Private James Hines of the 77th Division is one of hundreds of chauffeurs who are back from the front and seek jobs. He said:

"Here, people jumping off trolley cars and cutting across streets all ways at once makes a fellow feel jumpy. I'd rather dodge a shell any day."

More than 600 men of all trades and businesses applied yesterday for work at the bureau.

Harmonites on Annual Outing at Pelham Bay.

The Harlem Luncheon Association and the Harlem Board of Commerce started this morning for their annual outing, leaving the Hotel Theresa, 7th Avenue and 125th Street, and going by auto to the Hunter Island Inn at Pelham Bay Park, where a shore dinner will be served. James Pringle was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Winnipeg Strike Called Off With Labor Wining No Concessions.

WINNIPEG, June 26.—After nearly six weeks of industrial strife, Winnipeg's general sympathetic strike has been called off. Shortly before midnight last night the Central Strike Committee came to an agreement to order all men back to work to-morrow at 11 A. M. Similar announcements came from Calgary and Edmonton.

The calling off of the strike is unconditional. Conferences of labor leaders with Premier Norris of Manitoba, and other provincial officials failed to obtain any concessions, but it was indicated that a commission of investigation would be appointed after the strike was called off.
